

Top Notch, World Class Attractions

While you are here, we encourage you to check out some of the many attractions and events that make the Rockford area Original. Don't miss Jane, the world's best-preserved and most complete juvenile T. rex, at the Burpee Museum of Natural History. Head next door and explore the Discovery Center, the 4th best children's museum in the nation or visit the top-rated Rockford Art Museum. A trip to Rockford wouldn't be complete without a stop at North America's #1 Japanese garden, Anderson Japanese Gardens. Our region also offers entertainment options from theaters to water parks to golf courses and racing. When you're in the Rockford Region, you're in for one Original experience.

About the North End Commons

The tour you are taking today will guide you through a series of stops in the North End Commons area of Rockford. This area offers a variety of historical sites and buildings of architectural interest reflecting the early years of Rockford. As is true of any tour of this kind, it will only give you a glimpse into this area. We hope you will spend more time after this tour to drive around and visit other points of interest in this area.

Welcome To The Rockford Region...

We hope you enjoy this Rockford Originals Walking Tour covering the North End Commons in Rockford. We hope you will check out the other walking tours that have been developed. These tours provide a snapshot of the rich heritage of our city.

B 1400 Block of North Main Street, West Side of Street

Park your car in the lot behind these stores and walk to the south end of the lot to start the tour.

C 1313 Auburn Street, Table 13 Restaurant & Salon 13

This unique Swiss Tudor style building was an A & P Grocery Store in the 1930's, and then it became Tally Ho Restaurant and Saddle and Cycle Restaurants during the 1950s.

D NE corner N. Main & Auburn Streets, Civil War Memorial

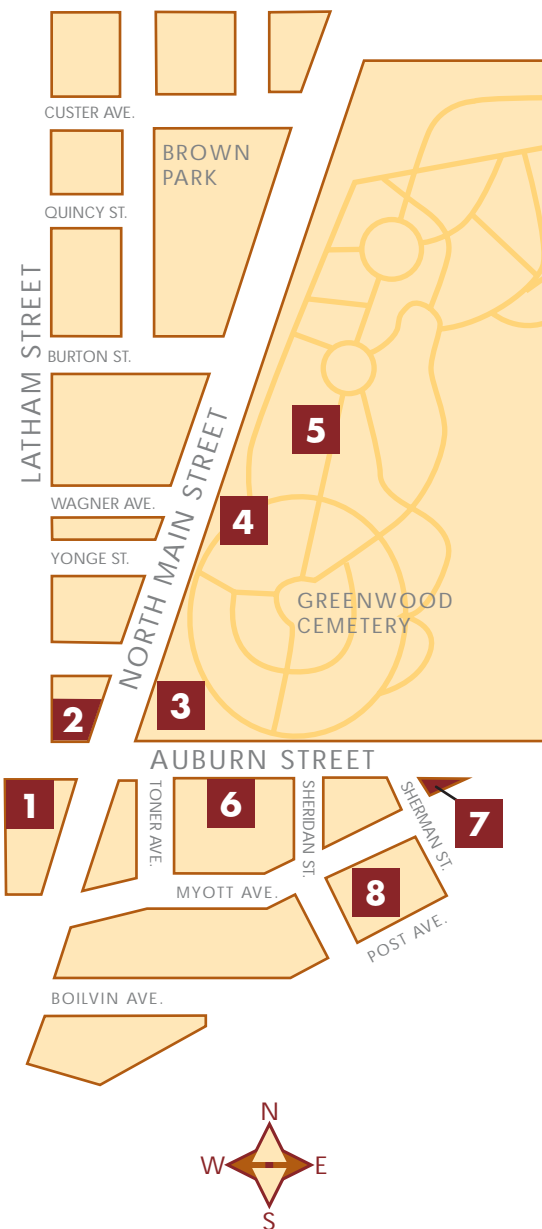

The soldier statue was originally created and dedicated to the city in 1877 by the GAR. It was relocated to this site in 1984 after standing proudly at the entrance of Camp Fuller for many years.

E Greenwood Cemetery, Lewis Lemon Gravesite

Lewis Lemon came to Rockford as a slave of Germanicus Kent. He was given the opportunity to buy his freedom by working for Kent over a period of six years and seven months.

North End Commons

F Greenwood Cemetery, Thatcher Blake Gravesite

After helping Germanicus Kent establish the first saw mill in the area, Blake actually worked as a business manager for Kent.

G SE side of Auburn & N. Main Streets, Der Rathskeller Restaurant

This building was constructed in 1931 and the design is based on a restaurant of the same name in Madison, Wisconsin.

Auburn Movie Theater

This 1950's Art Deco building with its impressive curved brick and glass work must have been an inviting place for kids of all ages to see movies, especially the children's matinee on Saturdays.

H 505 Sherman Street, Fire Station Number Eight

The unique Ionic columns and peaked roof line is reminiscent of Greek revival architecture.

I 1520 Post Avenue, P. R. Walker Elementary School

The school is named for Professor P.R. Walker who was superintendent of Rockford Schools for 29 years. Ironically, Walker used to march on the same piece of ground during his training at Camp Grant in 1862.
